

TSWALU EXPERIENCE: RHINO MONITORING

Tswalu Kalahari has populations of both black and white rhino which are thriving under the protection of our conservation team. Each rhino is identified by notches in their ears as well as microchips under the skin and in the horn, to assist in combating the illegal trade in rhino horn.

Now Tswalu has launched a package for people interested in conservation who would like to participate in rhino monitoring. The package is a minimum four night stay at Tarkuni, Tswalu's luxury private villa, for a minimum of four guests travelling together, and includes:

- full board luxury accommodation for up to 8 guests at Tarkuni
- participation in your private rhino notching safari - as part of the ground crew and thereafter a recon helicopter flight back to Tarkuni
- a private vehicle, and dedicated personal field guide and tracker for the duration of your stay -per booking
- a private chef and dedicated executive butler at Tarkuni
- all beverages & selected wines
- walking & horseback safaris
- laundry & valet

Terms & Conditions apply: • Min 4 night stay • Min 4 guests travelling together • All packages are mutually exclusive • Package available April – September • 20 minute helicopter flight limited to one per couple
